

British Neville Chamberlain Award

September 2016

Chief Constable Dave Thompson of West Midlands Police

Chief Constable Dave Thompson has been given this British Neville Chamberlain Award for abject and disgusting appeasement of the dangerous ideology of Islam for his foolish decision to look favourably on the idea of Burkha clad police officers. By doing so he has shown just whose side he is on and if you are not Muslim then it seems Chief Constable Thompson is definitely not on your side.

British Neville Chamberlain Awards are given by the contributors and readers of the Fahrenheit211 politics and culture blog to the public servants and elected representatives who most egregiously pander to the ideology of Islam and its followers to the detriment of almost everyone else.
